Certificate

in Philosophy
(Applied Ethics)

The Certificate in Philosophy (Applied Ethics) is a short-term program allowing students to obtain an overview of the main philosophy subjects such as metaphysics, epistemology, and aesthetics, with a focus specifically on ethics, including theoretical and applied ethics.

- 30 credits (15 credits in Philosophy and 15 credits in Ethics)
- Full-time option (1 year)
- Part-time option (up to 10 years)
- $147 per credit (domestic students) and only
- $375 (international students)

To enroll in the certificate program, contact the registrar
Andrew Garfield Mills
Phone: 613-233-5696 ext. 310
Email: registrar@dominicanu.ca